ZP1607+R99613

Finishes available: Chrome, Brushed Nickel

The Isy shower or bath mixer is part of a system that speaks the language of simplicity: it is not an effort of design but an idea which flows from water's own creativity and follows its plastic forms. Less is better, least is best: the utmost formal simplification for the first mixing tap in the world made with vanishing technology. Designed by Matteo Thun with Antonio Rodriguez.

The Isy shower or bath mixer can be used in conjunction with a shower or bath outlet. Featuring a flawlessly polished forged brass wall plate 130mm diameter.
