

Isystick Bidet Mixer

ZP1336

Finish: Chrome

Finishes available: Brushed Nickel

The Isy bidet mixer is part of a system that speaks the language of simplicity: it is not an effort of design but an idea which flows from water's own creativity and follows its plastic forms. Less is better, least is best: the utmost formal simplification for the first mixing tap in the world made with vanishing technology. Designed by Matteo Thun with Antonio Rodriguez.

The Isy bidet mixer has stood the test of time. This mixer features a one piece cast brass spout for the ultimate in strength.

Spout projection of 83mm.

Important notice before installation:

This tapware is to be used with equal pressure hot and cold water. Pressure must be restricted to 500kpa maximum. In instances where the pressure is higher than 500kpa, pressure reduction valves must be installed.
