

Agora Freestanding Bath

1AGBIOCRCR

Finish: Soft Touch Silkstone
Chrome Overflow

Overflow: Yes

Waste assembly supplied: Yes

The Agora freestanding bathtub designed by Ludovica+Roberto Palomba nods a wink to the world of classics. It has soft curves but its metal feet while forming a strong link to traditional bathtubs have been given a modern design makeover. It echoes the feminine figure with refined timeless elegance; a classic object perfectly in tune with the present. The flowing design of the tub finds its maximum expression in the tall backrest with its outward rolled top. This detail emphasises the tub's sinuous welcoming personality highlighting both its aesthetics and functionality.

It manufactured from the soft touch Silkstone material and is supplied with chrome plated brass overflow and waste system.
